

TENTATIVE ITINERARY

Munich, Innsbruck, and its surroundings (06/27/2025-07/05/2025)

Day 1: Welcome to Munich

06/27/2025

Individual arrival in Munich.

3:00pm: Check in. You will find me in the hotel lobby.

4:00pm: Group will meet in the Hotel lobby for a warm welcome and Q&As.

4:30pm: Together we will walk to the Marienplatz, the heart of the City including a visit to the tower of the New Town Hall.

6:30pm: Welcome dinner at the “Hofbraeuhaus”

8:30pm: Returning to the hotel or free time.

Walking: approx. 2 hours

Day 2: Getting to know Munich

06/28/2025

After a good night’s rest and a solid breakfast, we will get to know Munich today. I will be happy to answer questions for you during morning hours.

9:30am: Sightseeing tour, “hop on bus”

Est. time 2.5 hours for one loop.

1:30pm: Free time/Lunch optional

3:00pm: Tickets for the “Deutsches Museum” (world's largest museum of science and technology) or Pinakothek der Moderne (Art Museum).

6:00pm: Group will meet for dinner

7:00pm: Optional: Open Air Concert

Walking: approx. 1 hour plus free time

Day 3: Full-Day Neuschwanstein Castle

06/29/2025

After a good breakfast, we will leave Munich for a 10 hour trip to Neuschwanstein Castle and Linderhof Palace Grounds

8:00am: The group will meet in the hotel lobby.

8:30am: Departure from Munich

9:45am: Arrive at Linderhof Castle for the guided tour

10:45am: Depart from Linderhof castle

11:15am: Arrive in Oberammergau

11:45am: Depart from Oberammergau

1pm: Arrive at Neuschwanstein Castle

4:30pm: Depart from Neuschwanstein Castle

6:30pm: Arrive back in Munich

7:00pm: Dinner at the hotel

Day 4: Garmisch-Partenkirchen, Germany

6/30/2025

After breakfast, we will check out and leave the city. It is time to explore the alpine foothills. Garmisch-Partenkirchen is a German ski resort in Bavaria, formed when 2 towns united in 1935, for the Winter Olympic Games in 1936. It's a prominent destination for skiing and ice skating as well as hiking. The town lies near the Zugspitze, Germany's highest peak, with a 2,962m summit accessed by cogwheel train and cable car. Garmisch is considered the more fashionable section, while Partenkirchen's cobblestone streets retain a traditional Bavarian feel.

9:00am: Meeting in the hotel lobby.

Together, we will take the bus to Garmisch-Partenkirchen

9:30am: Departure

10:45am: Arrival in Garmisch-Partenkirchen and Check in

12:00pm: Departure for Germany's highest mountain, the Zugspitze

1:30pm: Lunch on top of the mountain

Free time: You can spend as much time as you wish on the mountain or take the cable car back, down to the village

6:00pm: Dinner at the hotel

Day 5: Seefeld and Leutasch, Austria

07/01/2025

After breakfast, we will check out again. We are crossing borders to Austria. Our next stay will be for three nights, enough time to unpack your suitcase...

Seefeld is an Alpine town in the Austrian state of Tyrol. It lies on a plateau ringed by the Wetterstein and Karwendel ranges and is known for its cross-country skiing and hiking.

9:30am: The group will meet in the hotel lobby.

10:30am: Departure by train or bus.

11:30am: Arrival in Leutasch and check in.

12:00pm: Lunch/coffee break at the hotel

Free Time to explore the surroundings of the hotel, with the option to walk to Seefeld or go hiking

6:30pm: Dinner at the hotel

Day 6: Innsbruck/ Leutasch

07/02/2025

After a good morning breakfast, you will have the option to visit Innsbruck. A 40 minute train ride will bring us to the city, the capital of Austria's western state of Tyrol.

If you need a break from urban settings, you can stay at the hotel. Guided hiking tours are being offered if you do not want to explore the beauty of the mountains on your own.

6:30pm: Dinner at the hotel

Day 7: Leutasch/ Innsbruck

07/03/2025

If you fell in love with Innsbruck, you have the option to take the train to the city again. Otherwise, this day is reserved for walking/hiking.

6:30pm: Dinner at the hotel

Day 8: Goodbye Austria

07/04/2025

After breakfast at the hotel, we will take the bus from Seefeld back to Munich. As this will be our last day, everyone should get a chance to go back to the places of interest. You might want to go to a museum, take a stroll through the “Englischer Garten” or go shopping...

11:00am: Departure

1:15pm: Arrival in Munich, check in, and free time.

6:00pm: The group will meet for a Farewell Dinner

Day 9: Farewell Munich

07/05/2025

Breakfast at the hotel and individual transfer to the airport.